

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: I'm really interested; what is this exactly?

A: The best explanation of this gig, is the gig itself. Since there is a "No Questions Asked; No Reasons Wanted" guarantee, you might as well get the gig. After you have the full and best explanation, if it's not for you, just send me a message for a fast refund.

Q: I'm located in (part of the world); does this gig work for me?

A: Yes! I've used the Media Insiders' Secrets for my clients from many countries over 6 of the 7 continents.

Q: I'm located in (part of the world); do the gig extras work for me?

A: Yes, the custom strategy gigs work for you. Of course, the US media contacts and TV loophole in LA is for USA only. It can be a little harder for me to research in other countries because of Google; however, I've found it to be manageable. I have 54% world domination for a reason.

Q: What do you need to know from me to deliver?

A: It's nice to know your business category (usually by sharing your website) and anything really unique or surprising about you. For example, a magician who literally has nothing up the sleeves because s/he has a prosthetic arm is really interesting and will get publicity. Though nothing is required to deliver the core gig.

Q: My question wasn't answered here. Is there a way to ask it?
